

Associated Researcher

Dr. Bettina Hamann

Bettina.hamann@tu-berlin.de

Hardenbergstr. 16-18, Sekr. HBS5
Room HBS 110
T + 49 – 30 – 314 – 21468

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Bettina Hamann works for the Habitat Unit since 2004. She coordinates the international, postgraduate Urban Management (UM) Masters course at TU Berlin. Bettina studied Landscape ecology and landscape planning at University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences (Universität für Bodenkultur) and Chinese studies at University of Vienna (Universität Wien), Austria. She received her PhD at the Institute of Landscape Architecture and Environmental Planning, TU Berlin. Since 2001, she designs and manages international training courses in the field of environmental and urban planning.

Education

1998-2005

Doctorate (Dr. ing) at TU Berlin, Institute of Landscape Architecture and Environmental

Planning (in cooperation with Chinese Academy of Science, Urumqi/China). Thesis:
Ecological and socioeconomic developments along the Southern
Fringe of the Dsungarian
Basin/ Xinjiang, during the phase of transformation in the 1990s.

1987-1994

Landscape ecology and landscape planning, Universität für Bodenkultur (University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences), Austria

1986-1988

Chinese studies, Universität Wien (University of Vienna), Austria

Employment History

Since 2004

Coordinator of the international, postgraduate Urban Management program
Habitat Unit, TU Berlin

2001-2004

Coordinator of training programs for participants from Chinese local authorities, in the fields of environmental and urban planning
Institute of Landscape Architecture and Environmental Planning, TU
Berlin

1994-1999

Landscape architecture offices, Berlin